

Interline Standby Rates with Reciprocal Agreement

Rates effective July 21, 2017 until further notice

General Information

- ✓ Currently it is not possible to list online. To list you must call our Reservations Office 24 to 48 hours prior to your Grand Canyon flight: US toll free: 888-635-7272 – worldwide: +1 702-638-3300 - open daily from 5AM to 11PM PST. You need to provide actual passenger weights when you list.
- ✓ All standby travel is subject to weather, seat and weight availability. Parties larger than two passengers need to be prepared to travel on separate helicopters on the same departure. On airplanes we may have more seats available.
- ✓ Be flexible. Should your first choice be full, our ticket counter staff will be happy to assist you with finding an alternate departure time or aerial tour. July through August our flights run very full.
- ✓ Payment is collected once your seats have cleared. All major credit cards accepted. Cash US$ only.
- ✓ Airline ID required at check-in. Dependents traveling without the employee can show screenshot of the travel profile showing them as eligible or copy of other standby itinerary.
- ✓ Dress code is casual and comfortable. Jeans and athletic shoes okay, but all must be neat, clean and in good taste. Winter clothing should be worn from mid-October through March.

Las Vegas – Boulder City Municipal Airport, 1265 Airport Drive, Boulder City, NV, 89005

If you have a rental car: We recommend you drive to our terminal. We are located approximately 30 minutes away from the Las Vegas Strip on the way to Hoover Dam, off Highway 93. Free parking is available. See website for map.

If you use our complimentary shuttle bus: Your seat on the shuttle is confirmed, however, this does not guarantee a seat on the flight. Your seats will be cleared at the airport once all revenue passengers have checked in. You must be at your pick-up location at least 5 minutes prior to your pick-up time. The shuttle driver will not wait for late passengers. Should you decide not to go, please call and cancel the shuttle prior to your pick-up!
